17. DOGS IN CARS ON HOT DAYS Your dog is vulnerable and at risk during hot weather and the Kennel Club offers the following guidance to help guide you through the do's and don'ts travelling to and whilst at KC licensed events.
 - a/ When travelling to a show please take a moment to consider whether the route to the show is on a busy holiday route and leave earlier to avoid increased time in traffic jams.
 - b/ If your vehicle is not air-conditioned seriously consider whether travelling to the show is a good idea at all.
 - c/ The vehicle should be as fully ventilated as possible and plenty of stops should be taken, with lots of water available to drink.
 - d/ Ensure your dog is not sitting in full sunlight. There should be plenty of fresh flowing air around the dog.
 - e/ When at a show, never leave your dog in the vehicle.
 - f/ Keep the dog in the shade - take your own shade for example a large umbrella and always have plenty of water available to drink so your dog stays well hydrated.
 - g/ Avoid your dog taking part in unnecessary exertion, or from standing in exposed sunlight for extended lengths of time. Remember, if you feel hot your dog is very likely to feel much hotter and dehydrated and this could lead to dire results. Please look after your dog's welfare.

Judges

Denise Garratt (Dogs) and Serena Parker (Bitches)

My involvement with dogs in the Show world began way back in the 70's when I successfully showed Irish Setters, I attended a local Limit Show and instantly fell in love with a breed there that I found out were Saluki – I just had to have one. After waiting for nearly two years, I found the perfect bitch for me so started the “Caryna” Saluki. I have now bred several Champions in the breed, holding the breed record for the Top Bitch “Ch Caryna Hera JW” for three years running. I have also owned and showed Whippets, Afghans, Borzoi and Standard Dachshund successfully at champ show level over a number of years. Being in the Hound group I was taken by the variety and size of this group and I was drawn to the Rhodesian Ridgebacks as they presented such a powerful and handsome picture. I first started judging back in 1984 and judged my first class of Rhodesian Ridgebacks in 1996. I have attended two breed specific seminars, judged 43 breed classes' and have gone over nearly a hundred hounds, I have watched the breed both in and out of the show ring with great interest. I am passed to award CC in Saluki and Borzoi and I thank the Midlands and Northern Rhodesian Ridgeback Club and the exhibitors for the opportunity to judge this very special breed. Denise Garratt

My first Beagle arrived in 1980 and whilst he was not the best specimen of the breed, he won me a few prizes and was ultimately responsible for me becoming bitten by the show bug. I have owned 5 and bred 4 Beagle champions, including Ch & IrCh. Serenaker Devil Woman winner of 21CC's, multiple group placings, she won BOB and Hound group 3 at Crufts and was Top Beagle 2006. She has 2 Champion children and another on 2 CC's, her son was the POTY winner 2007, he was Top Puppy all breeds 2007 and is now a German and Danish champion. My love of dogs and hounds especially, gave me the incentive to venture into PBGV's in 1997 and Pharaoh hounds in 1999. We were relatively successful in Griff's winning a CC and 3 RCC's (one at Crufts), however it is the Pharaoh's that have given us the most success. The first 2 Pharaoh's being litter brother & sister, both multiple CC winners and champions, both were general Championship show Group winners and the bitch a RBIS winner at Bournemouth along with being the bitch record holder. My 3rd PH an American import was Top Pharaoh 2008, winning the group at Leeds on the way, he was also the Top Sire 2010. His daughter followed in 2009 and his son in 2010, the bitch has 2CC's, the dog 1CC and was Top puppy 2010. I first awarded CC's in Beagles in 1998 and have judged the breed five more times in this country, twice in Denmark, once in Germany & once in Australia since. I awarded CC's in PBGV for the first time in 2009 I am very much looking forward to judging your wonderful hounds. Serena Parker
